

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

July 5, 1960

MEMORANDUM FOR

The Honorable Allen Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence

On the recommendation of Mr. Gordon Gray,
I am enclosing a copy of a letter which was sent in identical form to the Secretary of Defense

John S. D. Eisenhower
Lt. Col., Inf., U. S. Army
Assistant Staff Secretary

Remarks: Bob: The Director asked me to check with General Cabell and see if he was aware of the attached letter. I spoke to the General who stated that you had heard about the letter the President had sent to the Secretary of Defense and Dr. Kistiakowsky and had asked that a copy be forwarded to us. Gen. Cabell suggests that you give the DCI a little briefing on this at an early opportunity.
